

THE MIP GARDEN

Visit the MIP garden for an interactive tour, smell and touch the Mediterranean flora. The garden, in partnership with the Musée International de la Parfumerie (MIP), allows you to discover the flowers and plants used to create perfumes. On 2.5 hectares divided into several plots, enjoy a nice olfactory stroll. You can choose between a free or guided visit. You have the possibility to picnic in the garden. Extend your experience by signing up for workshops with your children. Throughout the year, events take place in the MIP garden: exhibitions, stands, workshops... Don't miss the May rose harvest, which takes place exclusively in May.

AN INTERACTIVE BOTANICAL GARDEN

Discover the interactive PIM garden that awakens your senses. Venture into the plots to smell and touch the flowers and their foliage. For each species, an explanatory panel on the history, origin and use of flowers in perfumery. Experience this as if you were choosing the fragrances for your new perfume.

AN OLFACTORY TOUR OF THE GARDEN

The MIP garden, thanks to its trail, allows you to discover the fragrances and olfactory notes used in perfumery. The olfactory trail begins at the top of the pathway where fragrant plants, aromatics and some of the perfume plants of the Grasse region are mixed together.

The plants are classified by olfactory zones: floral, woody, fruity, culinary spicy and herbaceous...

Approach each plot to smell these different odors while passing your hand through the plants. Among the species found there, some are used in essence and others serve as inspiration for the perfumer.

THE PLANT CONSERVATORY

The conservatory occupies  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the botanical garden and reproduces the flower fields cultivated at the time. There is the cultivation of perfume plants from Grasse such as many roses, irises, clary sage, narcissus, pelargonium rosa, jasmine... A plot dedicated to the cultivation of centifolia, while next to it a cultivation of centifolia ancestors. Other Mediterranean plants are present such as thyme, blackcurrant, lemon grass, olive tree, vine, wheat...

GUIDED TOUR

Visit the MIP garden on your own or with a guide. Once a day, a themed guided tour is offered: botany, distillation and extraction of perfume essence...

You will learn more about :

the history of plants

the use of the flower in perfumery

the families and particularities of each species
