OUR OPINION RIVIERA LOISIRS

Protected nature crystal clear waters

Don't hesitate to walk around the island, discover the Batéguier pond, or the bird observatory... a total of seven kilometers of hiking, in a protected natural area filled with pines and eucalyptus trees.

Relax in one of the coves: Sainte Marguerite Island is known for its magnificent fine sandy beaches, coves and crystal clear waters.

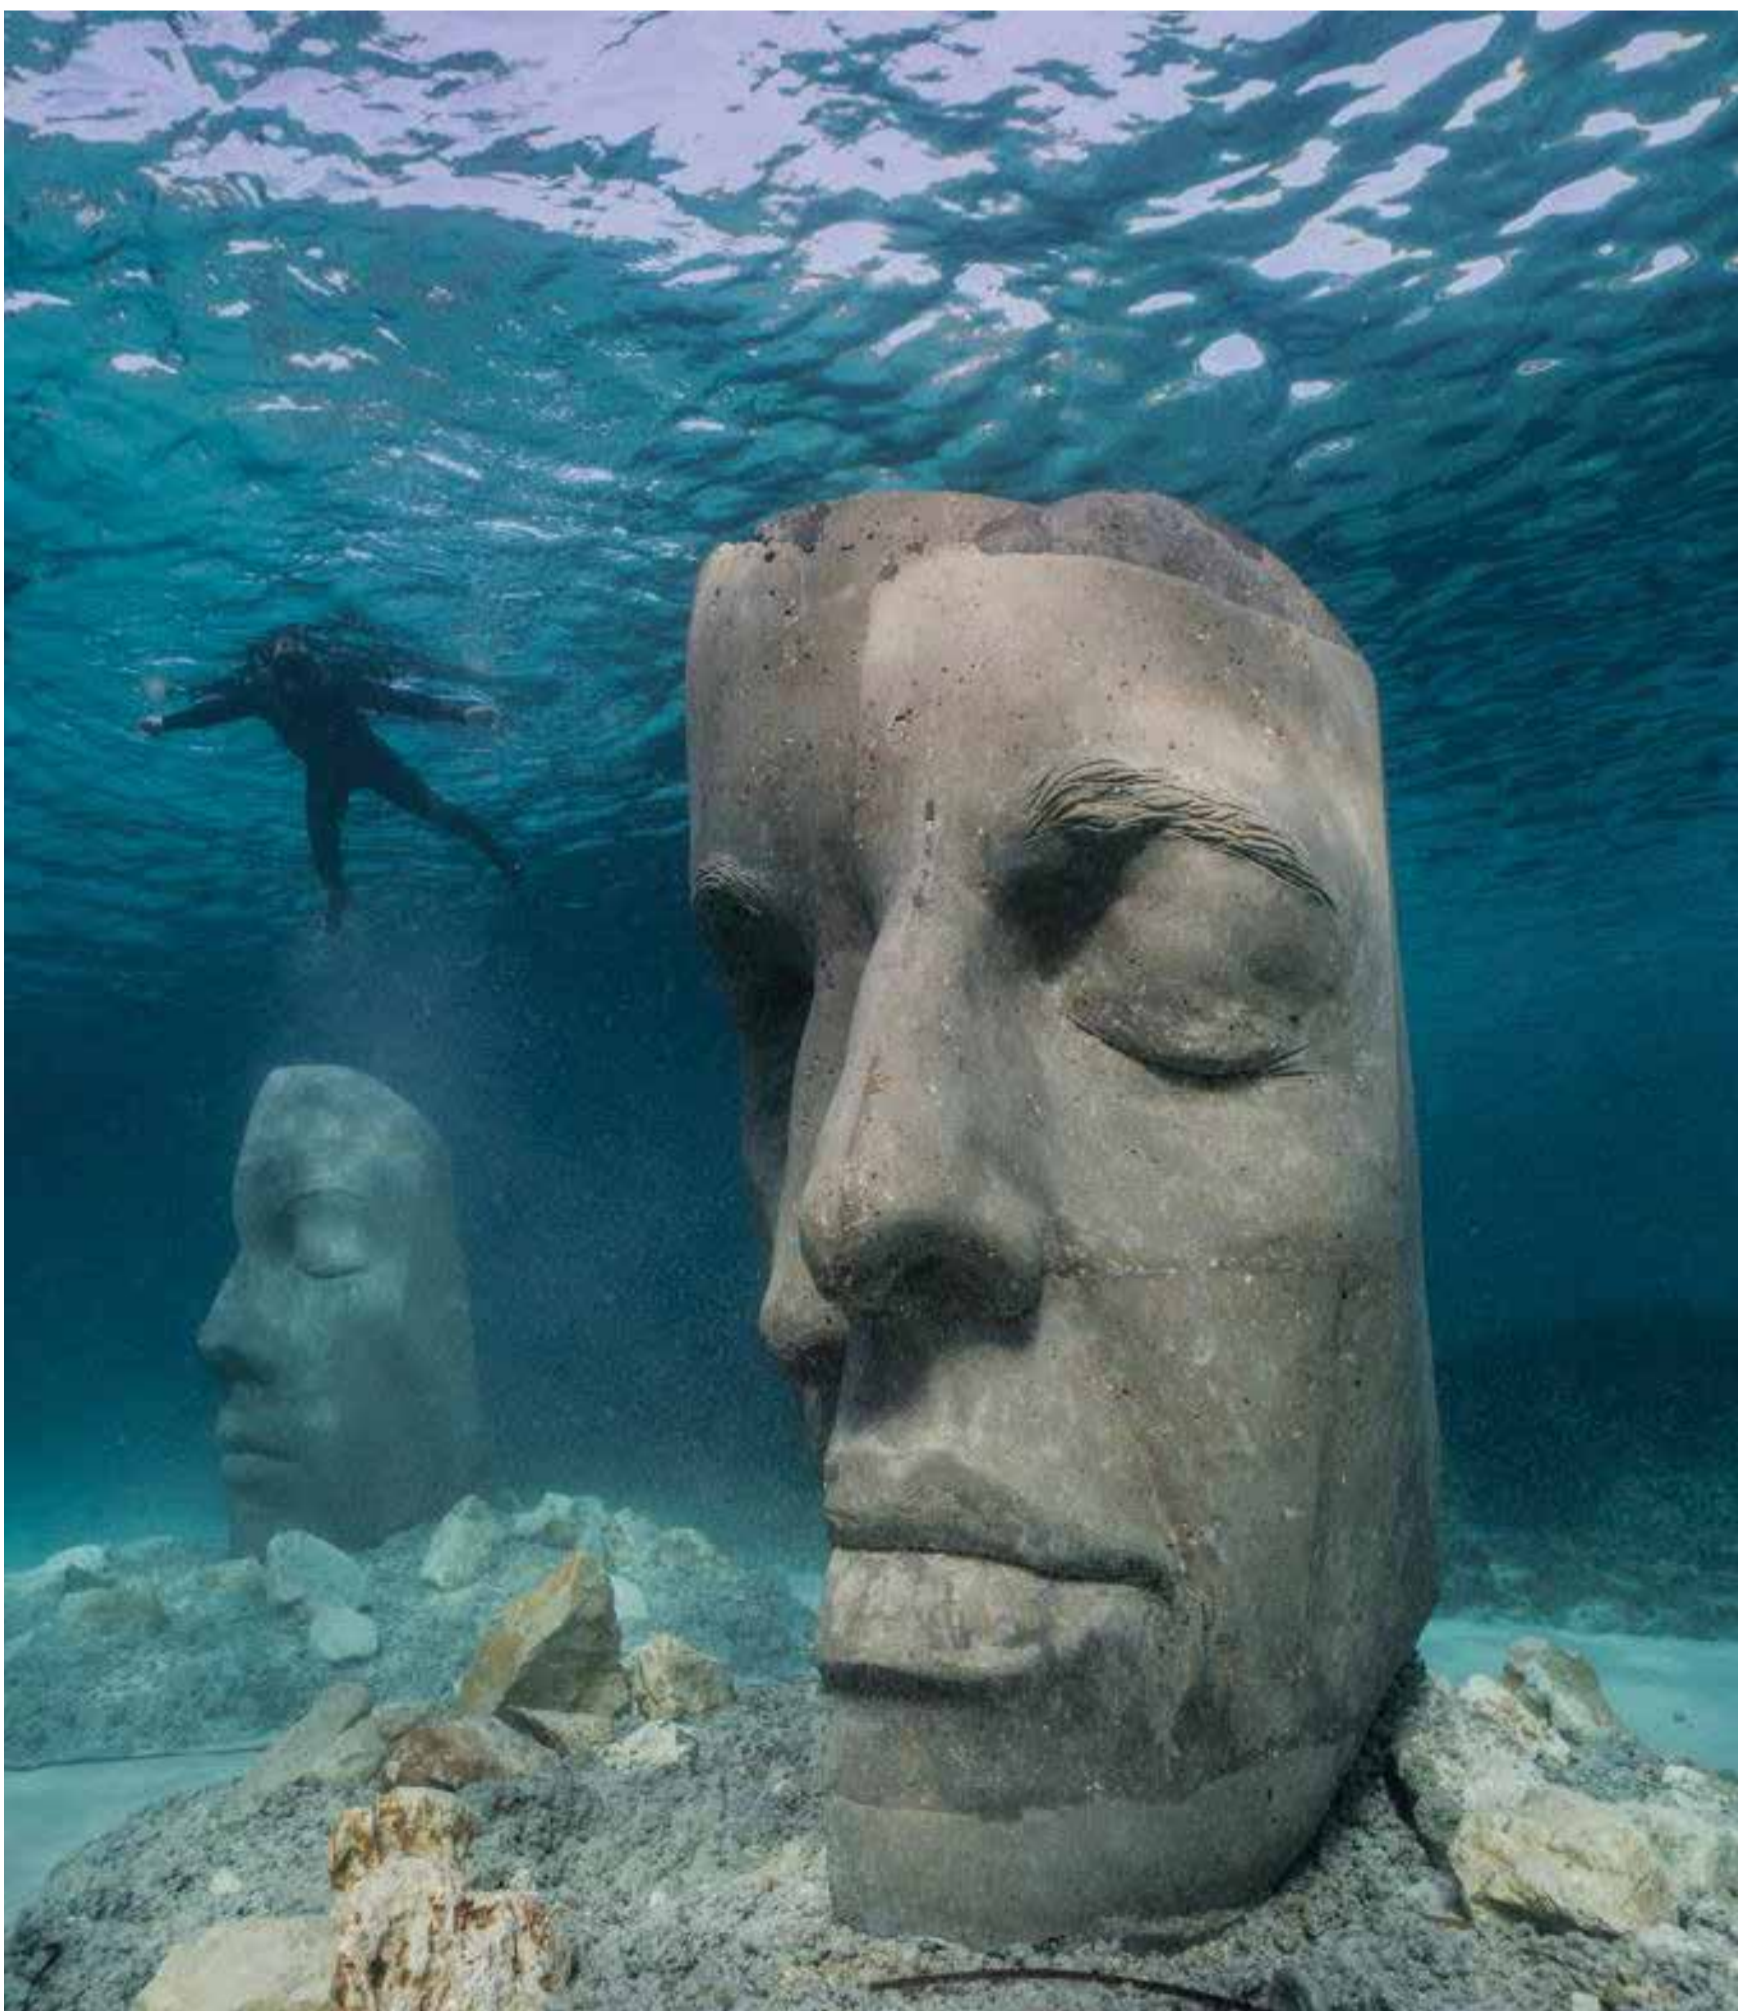

The Maritime Museum and its Royal Fort

In the north of the island, Fort Royal houses the Museum of the Sea. This cultural site will allow you to discover shipwrecks and fragments of Roman wall paintings, preserved in the museum. Fort Royal was used as a state prison. You will see the cell of the prisoner known as the Man in the Iron Mask, with its walls covered in paintings by Jean Le Gac. Try to unravel the mystery of the Man in the Iron Mask, whose identity has remained secret.

The ecomuseum submarine

100 meters from the shoreline of Sainte Marguerite Island, opposite the Forestry House, discover the underwater ecomuseum a few meters below the surface. Cannes. This museum is the first underwater museum in France. With your masks and snorkels, you can observe six exceptional 2-meter-high sculptures by Jason Taylor in the heart of the Mediterranean. The project makes the site ideal for underwater life.

Fireworks

July and August

Enjoy a boat trip and fireworks display with the Horizon boat company during the International Pyrotechnic Art Festival.

During this nighttime cruise aboard the Caribe, accompanied by a guide, you can take a picnic break.
