OUR OPINION RIVIERA LOISIRS

100 wild species on 16 hectares

You will meet a pair of fennec foxes, a tribe of Cuban and Chilean flamingos, a family of llamas and lions, 2 Bengal tiger brothers, a family of Grant's zebras, magnificent birds from the white-fronted, yellow-fronted and yellow-headed Amazon family, the 2 hippopotamus friends, the chimpanzee family Nenette and Jimmy and many other species!

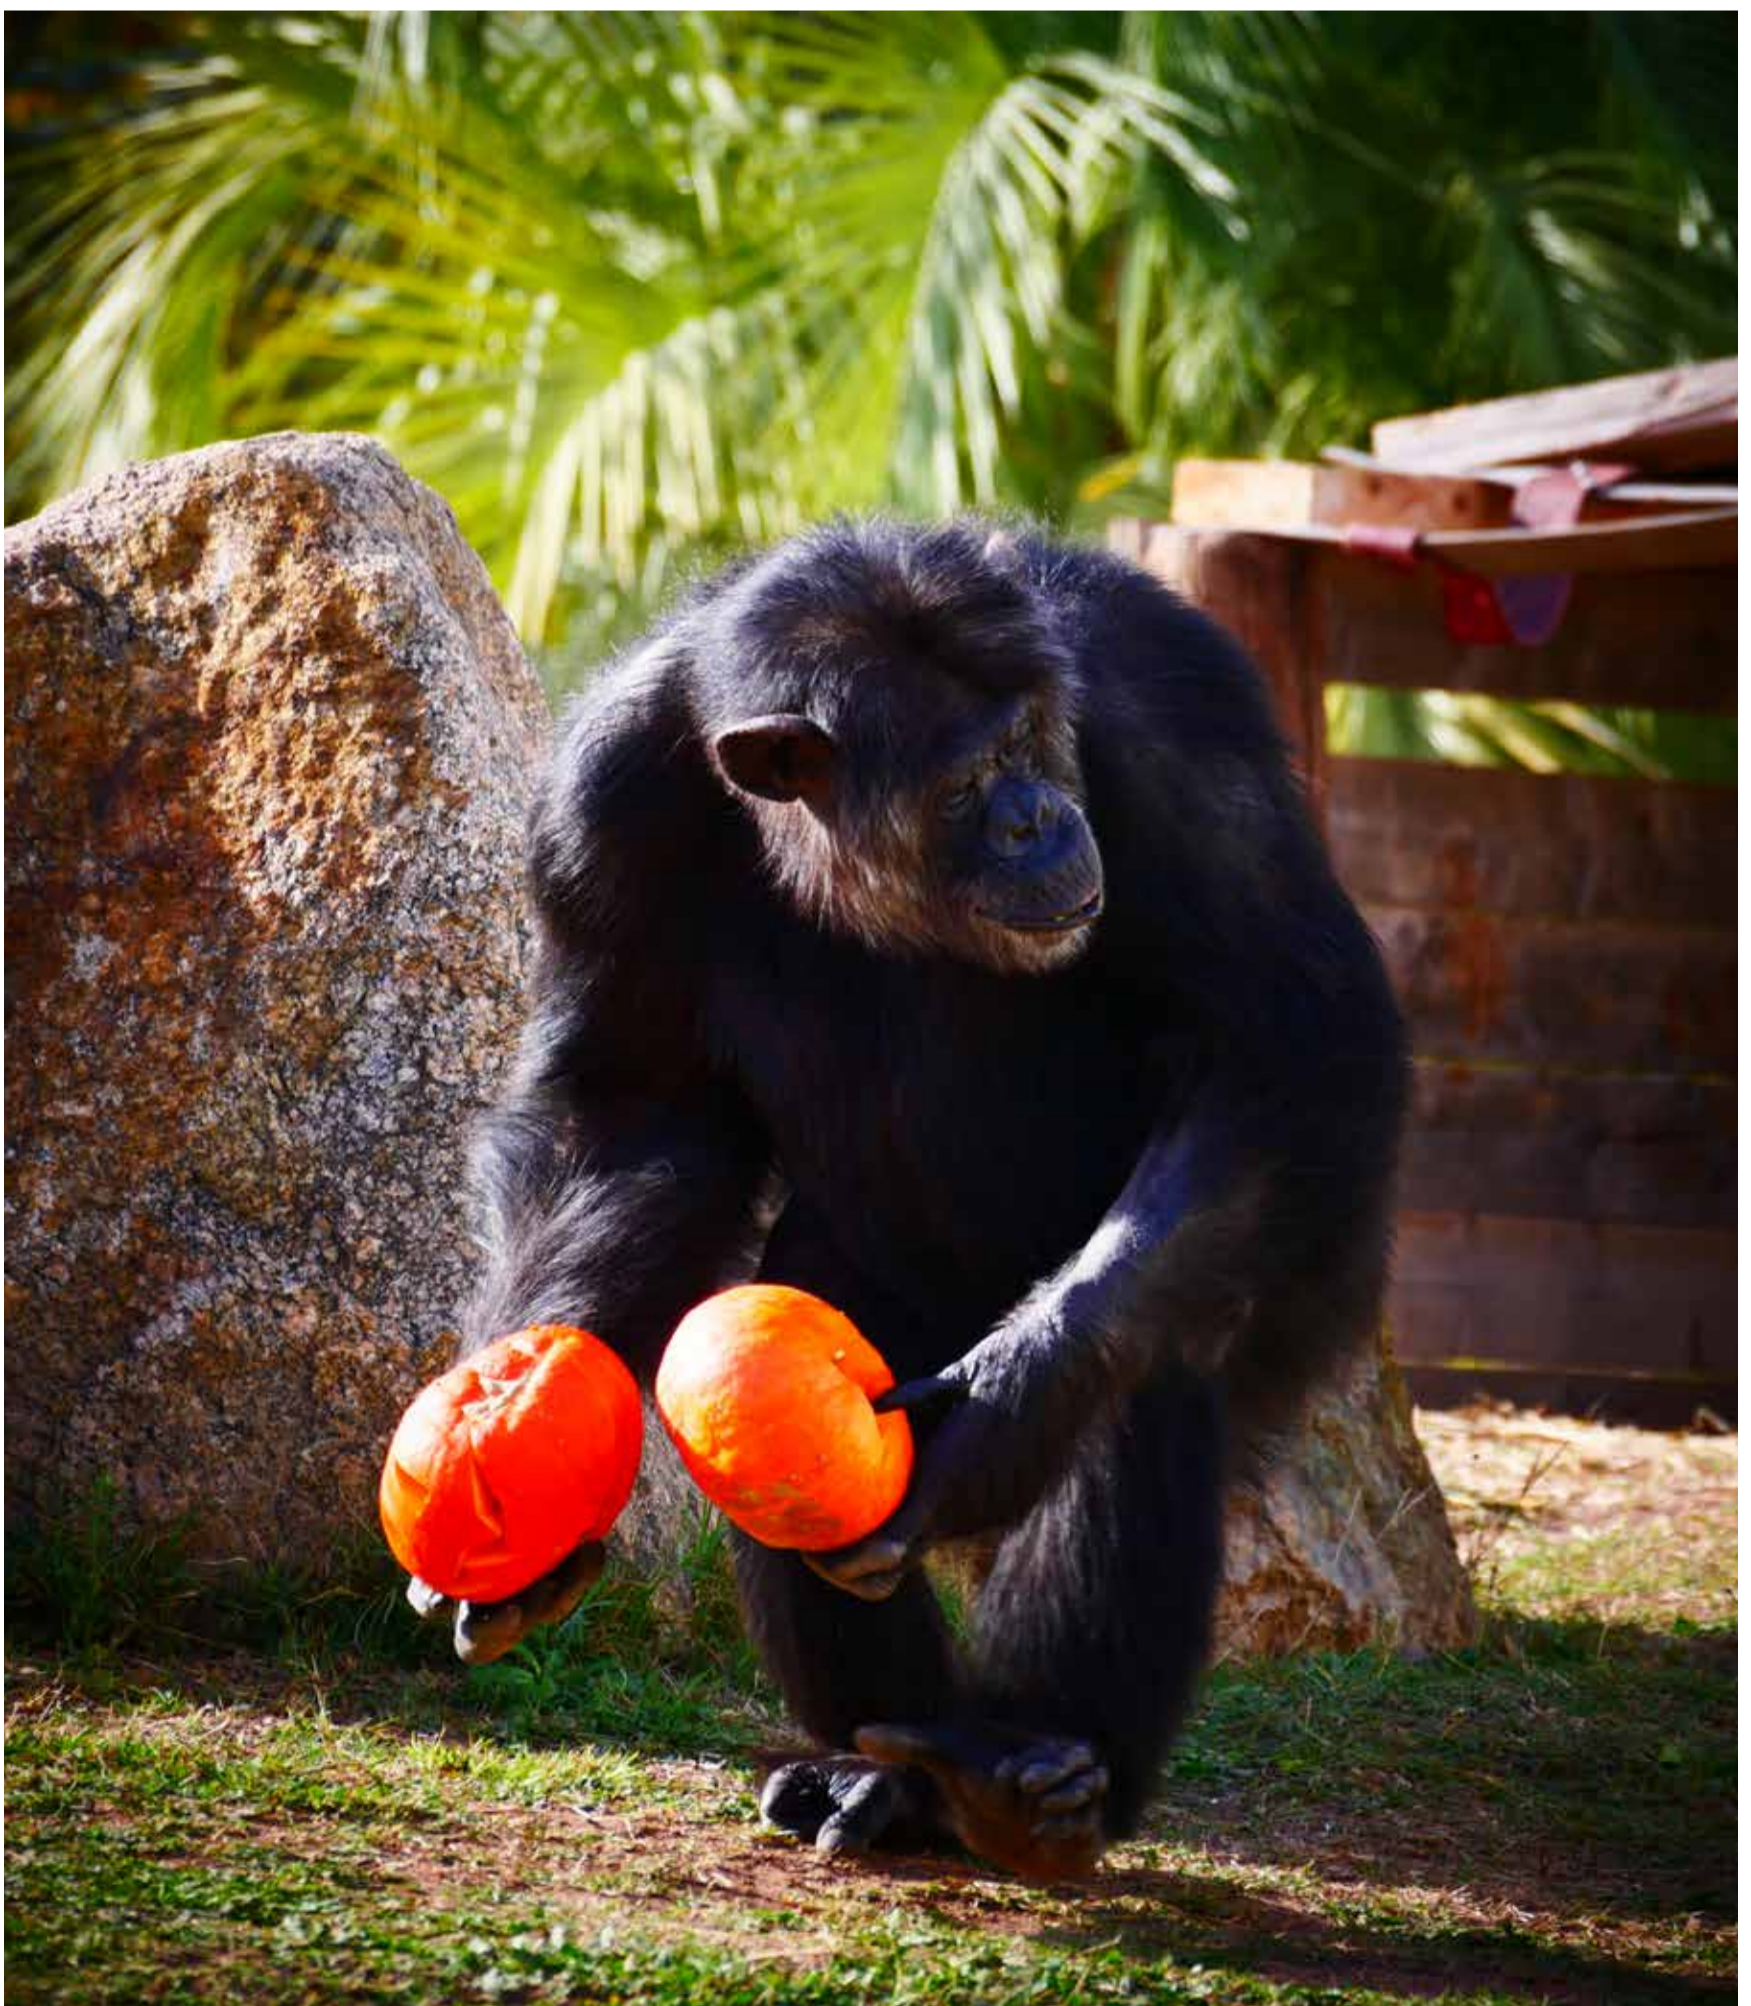

The park's passionate zookeepers

The zookeepers are deeply committed to the well-being of the animals and the preservation of the ecosystem. The team at Parc Zoa Nature, the animal and botanical park in Fréjus, has an in-depth knowledge of the personalities and habits of its residents. During presentations, the keepers explain the animals' diets, lifestyles, and development.

Animations educational

During the activities, you'll have the chance to interact with the zookeepers. Many different activities are offered. You can learn more about certain species during their presentations.

Enjoy a snack with the keepers. "Enrichment activities" are also offered to visitors. These aim to replicate what the animal does in its natural environment while encouraging physical activity.

A flora lush

The Fréjus Zoological Park is home to a wide variety of plants. Its selection adapts to the seasons, offering the park a different atmosphere throughout the year. Enjoy the Mediterranean plants: cacti, lotuses, bay trees, strawberries, daffodils, water lilies...
